

Laura McGovern

18 Glenview, Rochestown Avenue, Killiney, Co. Dublin.

M: 0861946542 e: laura.mcgovern3@gmail.com

Education History

2012-present: Dublin Institute of Technology, Kevin Street, Dublin 8.
DT211 - BSc in Computing.

Subjects (Fourth Year)

Systems Integration, Advanced Data Management, Advanced Security, Artificial Intelligence.

During final year, a project must be completed and submitted for academic evaluation:

- Create a piece of technology, hardware or software, or both. This technology must be a new and intuitive idea, or a new take on an old idea.
- Community based project.
 - Work with someone in the community who has disabilities.
 - Create a piece of technology that will in some way aid them.
- Project idea (currently in progress)
 - Build a small robot toy, that is controlled by a symbol based language.
 - The control panel in the form of a game.
 - Robot will be interactive.

2006 - 2012: Loreto Abbey Dalkey, Dalkey, Co Dublin.

Leaving Certificate 2012:

- Higher Level: English (C1), Irish (B2), French (B1), Geography (B2), History (A2), Business (B1)
- Ordinary Level: Math's (A1)

Work Experience/Responsibilities

(Feb 2015 – May 2015) – Intern, Intuitim, Brussels, Belgium

- Took part in an internship as part of the Erasmus+ program.
- Worked on a web application for medical images (MRI, x-ray etc).
- Deployed web application to Amazon Web Services.
- Worked with a team of interns on one project – MedicalStudio.
- Used the MEAN stack for development.
- Specific work on; upload service for web application.
- Specific work on; parsing DICOM file information.

(2009-2015) – Employee, News and Gifts, Killiney Shopping Centre

- Weekend work.
- Provide a friendly, efficient customer service.
- Manage tills and cash float.
- Monitor stock levels, refilling and updating stock.
- Price stock as it is put on display.
- Assist with training in new staff members.
- Arrange and present merchandise in a visually appealing manner.
- Cooperate with other employees.

(2008-2012) – Rescue Crew, Irish Youth Sailing Club, Dun Laoghaire

- Worked on a team of 8 people to ensure the safety of lesson groups
- Participated in several sessions of training to gain Safety Boat certificate
- Worked with other instructor groups, to co-ordinate timing, location and numbers.
- Provided assistance in the case of accidents or emergency.
- Completed a course of first aid training.

(2007-2010) – Sailing Instructor, Irish Youth Sailing Club, Dun Laoghaire

- Assisted with training young club members
- Organized timetables
- Worked with other instructors, coordinating groups and timing
- Conducted lessons with groups of 2-4 students

Achievements and Interests

Sailing

ISA qualified sailing instructor, safety boat certified, and powerboat license.
Competed in and won various in-club races.

Reading

I enjoy reading biographies about various celebrities and important figures. My favorite fiction authors include John Green, Steig Larsson, Lionel Shriver and Jamie McGuire.

Skills Profile

Languages

I have a sufficient command of French, basic understanding of Spanish.

Time management

Manage my own and other's time in an efficient manner. I am of getting work done thoroughly, efficiently and within a time frame.

Teamwork

Enjoy working in team and individually. Able to delegate and be delegated work. Enjoy building relationships with co-workers and enjoy completing a task or project as a team. Developed through group work in college and teamwork in the sailing club.

Initiative

I am able to take my own initiative on projects and tasks. Enjoy working off my own initiative, creating ideas and seeing them through. Put into practice through my small business venture.

Communication

Able to listen to and understand what it is required of me. Communicate well both orally and verbally. Developed through the sailing club and time working with the public in the newsagents, where communication is an important part of the job.

Referees

Academic:

Mr. Robert Dunne, Principle, Loreto Abbey Dalkey, Dalkey, Co.Dublin
Tel: 2718906 email: robert.dunne@loretoabbeydalkey.ie

Work:

Mr. John Roe, Owner, News and Gifts, Killiney Shopping Centre, Killiney, Co. Dublin
Tel: 2856218